

CURRICULUM VITAE

Name Marlies Amann-Marxer
Position Minister since 27 March 2013
Ministry Ministry of Infrastructure, Environmental Affairs and Sports
Date of birth 31 July 1952
Residence 9492 Eschen
Civil status Married to Manfred Amann, Dipl. Arch. FH
Four children

Education

St. Elisabeth Commercial School in Schaan –
Commercial Diploma (1969)
Language study and work stays in Neuchâtel, Geneva and Torquay/UK (1970, 1974/75)
Languages: French, English (Certificate of Proficiency in English) (1974)

Professional career

1970 – 1987 Officer, teller, information at Liecht. Landesbank, Vaduz; organization/officer at I.R.S.H.A. Intern. Steel Trading Establishment, Vaduz; office management, organization, accounting, management at Pattchom Int. Eng. AG, Vaduz 1989 – 1995 Human resources (up to 12 employees), bookkeeping, finances at Amann Architecture, Eschen since 1980 additional focus: family work/family management

Other activities

1993 – 2001 (Lay) Judge at the Liechtenstein Criminal Court
1997 – 2003 Alternate (Lay) Judge at the Administrative Court

Political career

1999 – 2005 Various Municipal Commissions, Member or Chair
2000 – 2005 Regular Member of Municipal Council of Eschen (Responsible for Schools)
2005 – 2013 Regular Member of Liechtenstein Parliament
Foreign Affairs Committee of Parliament, Member
Ad-Hoc Committees of Parliament, Member
2009 – 2013 EEA Committee of Parliament, Member

Volunteer work

since 2006 Sophie of Liechtenstein Foundation for Woman and Child, (founding year) Member of the Foundation Council since 1983 Lector, St. Martin's Parish Church, Eschen 2000 – 2013 Delegate of Family Assistance for the Lower Country

Interests Family, hospitality, recreational sport in nature, literature